2014 SEASON OUTLOOK

2014 OUTLOOK • POSITION BREAKDOWN

OUTLOOK

The #FalconFast Era Begins In Bowling Green

Following a 10-4 season and BGSU's first Mid-American Conference Championship since 1992, former head coach Dave Clawson departed for a new opportunity at Wake Forest. So, on Dec. 18, 2013, Director of Athletics D. Christopher Kingston announced the hiring of the 18th football coach in Bowling Green State University history, Dino Babers.

Babers comes to Bowling Green after a successful two years at Eastern Illinois, where he compiled a 19-7 record. The Panthers won two Ohio Valley Conference titles in his two seasons, and Babers was twice named the OVC Coach of the Year.

A protege of Art Briles at Baylor, Babers will bring an up-tempo and exciting style of football to Bowling Green and Doyt L. Perry Stadium. With the offensive pieces in place to embrace the offensive system and success it has had, the Falcons will be primed for the opportunity to repeat as MAC Champions in 2014.

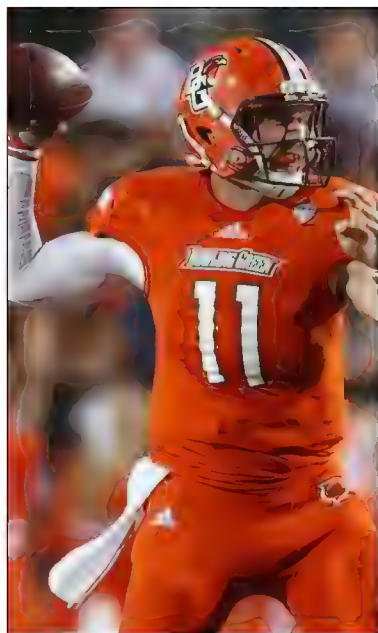

The Falcons return school record-holding running back Travis Greene, who rushed for 1,594 yards in his first season as a tailback. Along with Greene in the backfield will be quarterback Matt Johnson, who had one of the best seasons in school history in 2013. The Orange and Brown return a deep and talented set of wide receivers and three starting offensive linemen, including second team All-MAC performer Alex Huettel.

On the defensive side of the ball, Bowling Green returns six starters from a unit that finished inside the top-10 nationally in several major categories a season ago. D.J. Lynch and Gabe Martin, both second team All-MAC linebackers, return to anchor the best defense in the Mid-American Conference.

On special teams, placekicker Tyler Tate returns after scoring the most points by a kicker in school history last season.

QUARTERBACKS

Bowling Green returns 13-game starter Matt Johnson at quarterback. Johnson, who entered the first game of the season late in the first quarter, never relinquished the starting role for the rest of the season. Johnson was the only MAC quarterback to be named to both the Maxwell, Camp and O'Brien preseason Watch Lists this season.

Johnson finished the season completing 237-of-369 (64.2%) passes for 3,467 yards. He passed for 25 touchdowns compared to just seven interceptions. Perhaps his best performance of the season came on the biggest stage, when Johnson passed for 393 yards and five touchdowns in the MAC Championship Game against unbeaten Northern Illinois. For his efforts, he was named Most Valuable Player of the MAC Championship Game.

Johnson will be joined by James Knapke, who played in six games last season. Knapke completed 4-of-10 passes for 71 yards and a touchdown.

In addition to Johnson and Knapke, Nolan Dieter (R-Jr.) and Cody Callaway (Fr.) will compete for time at QB. Transfer Clayton Nicholas will have to sit out the 2014 season due to NCAA Transfer rules.

2014 Returning QB Stats
Name	GP	Comp-Att-Int	Pct.	Yds.	TD	Long
Johnson	14	237-369-7	64.2	3467	25	92
Knapke	6	4-10-0	40.0	71	1	33

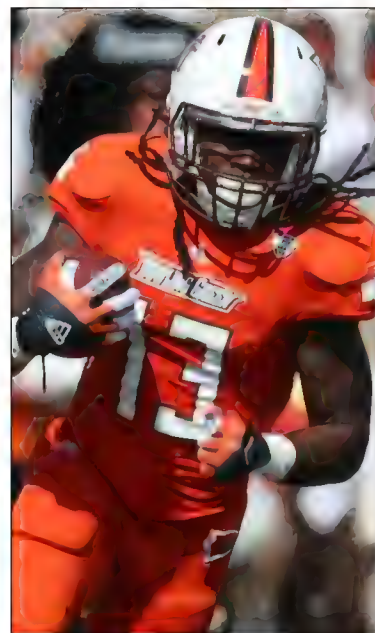

RUNNING BACKS

At the running back position, the Falcons will return all four backs that had over 40 carries in 2013, including starter Travis Greene. Greene finished the 2013 season with 1,594 rushing yards - a new school record.

Run production was much improved over years past, as the Falcons scored 30 touchdowns on the ground, including a combined 22 from Greene and William Houston.

Houston served as the primary short-yardage back in 2013, scoring 10 of his 11 touchdowns from inside two yards out. He finished the year by scoring touchdowns on 11 of his 49 rushes.

Andre Givens and Fred Coppet also return after getting 45 and 46 carries, respectively. Givens rushed for three touchdowns, while Coppet had a long rush of 18 yards on the season.

2014 OUTLOOK • POSITION BREAKDOWN

WIDE RECEIVERS

Despite losing their top two receivers from the 2013 season, this position is expected to be a strong point for Bowling Green. With the new offensive system which passed for over 5,000 yards at Eastern Illinois in 2013, several receivers are expected to put up big numbers in 2014.

Three receivers that recorded 28-plus catches in 2013 return, while several other receivers are expected to make a large impact.

Heath Jackson is the leading returning receiver for the Falcons, posting 32 catches for 364 yards and three touchdowns last season.

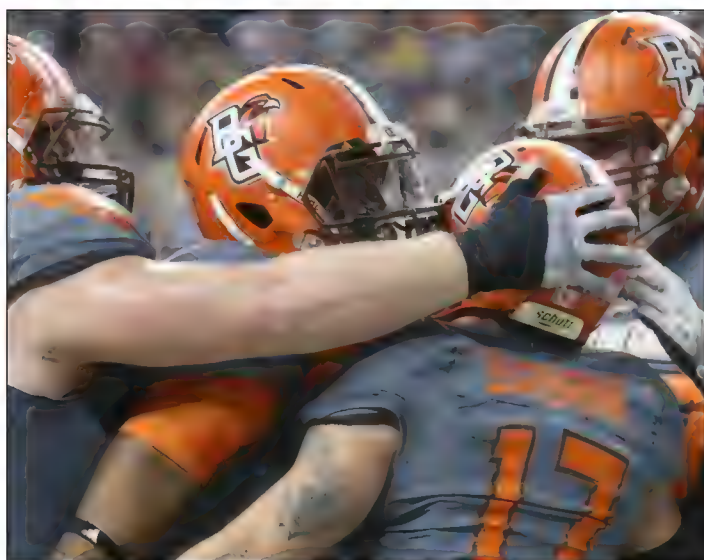

He is joined by Ryan Burbrink and Ronnie Moore. Burbrink had 30 catches for 477 yards and two touchdowns last year, while Moore had 28 catches for 547 yards and a team-high seven TDs.

Newcomers Gehrige Dieter (transfer from SMU) and Roger Lewis (freshman) are expected to make an impact, along with redshirt junior Herve Coby.

2014 Returning WR Stats

TIGHT ENDS

Bowling Green returns just two tight ends who saw playing time in 2013, and just four catches at the position.

Chris Pohlman returns after making four catches for 88 yards and a touchdown. He played in all 14 games, primarily as a run-blocking tight end.

Scott Davis also returns after seeing action in 2013. He did not record a catch.

Hunter Folkertsma also returns at the position after redshirting during the 2013 season.

2014 Returning TE Stats

Name	GP	Rec.	Yards	Avg.	TD	Long
Pohlman	14	4	88	22.0	1	38

OFFENSIVE LINE

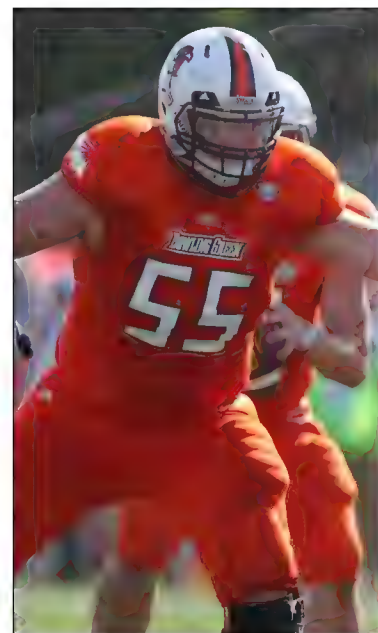

The Bowling Green offensive line will return three starters from the 2013 season, including second team All-MAC performer Alex Huettel. Huettel, who will make the switch from right guard to center in 2014, was named to the Rimington Trophy Preseason Watch List.

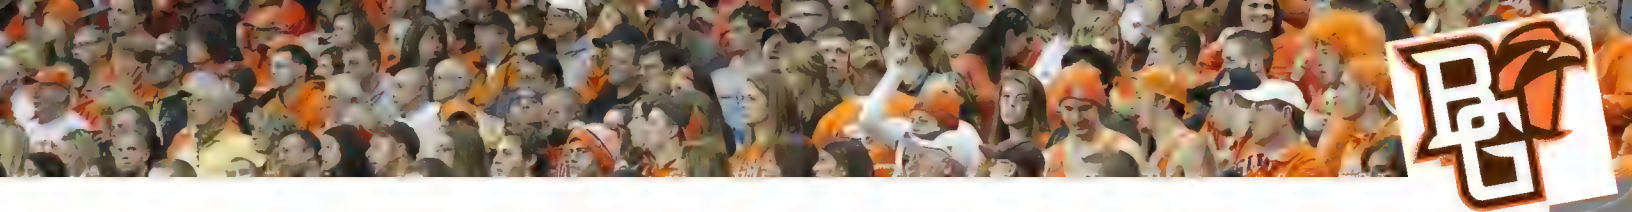

Jacob Bennett and Logan Dietz will also return in 2014 after starting all 14 games during the 2013 season as redshirt freshmen.

Among linemen who will compete for the vacancies left by first team All-MAC starters David "Chief" Kekuewa and Dominic Flewellyn will be returners Ryan Hunter (R-Fr.), Ben Steward (R-So.), Christian Piazza (R-Jr.), Clay Rolf (R-Sr.), and J.J. Beggan (R-So.). Several others will also compete for playing time.

Last season, the offensive line blocked for one of the best offensive units in the Mid-American Conference. Passing for over 3,700 yards and rushing for another 2,700, the offense was an integral part of the 2013 MAC Championship team.

The offensive line will be a key part to the success of the 2014 Falcons.

2014 OUTLOOK • POSITION BREAKDOWN

DEFENSIVE LINE

Bowling Green will return both defensive ends from the 2013 season, but will be tasked with replacing both interior linemen in 2014. Gone is second team All-MAC defensive lineman Ted Ouellet, but defensive end Bryan Thomas (first team All-MAC Phil Steele Preseason) returns.

Thomas led the defensive line in 2013 with 37 tackles, including 7.0 tackles for loss. Thomas added 1.0 sack and six quarterback hurries. He also recovered a fumble and blocked a field goal. On the other side of the line, Charlie Walker returns. Walker had 18 tackles in 11 games last season, including 1.5 tackles for loss and two QB hurries.

Zach Colvin will be expected to play a large role on the defensive line. Colvin played in all 14 games last season, making 24 tackles. He had 5.5 tackles for loss and three QB hurries. Taylor Royster will also play a key part in the Falcon defense. Last season he made 6.0 TFLs and 3.5 sacks.

SPECIALISTS

With a special teams unit which has made a difference over the past several seasons, the Falcons will need to continue that trend to have a chance at repeating their MAC Championship from 2013.

Placekicker Tyler Tate returns after scoring 113 points last season - most in school history by a kicker. Tate made 18-of-22 field goals last season and was 59-of-61 on extra point attempts. Tate was named to the Lou Groza Preseason Watch List in 2014.

Kickoff specialist Anthony Farinella returns. He averaged 60.8 yards per kickoff last season and had 29 touchbacks.

The Falcons will have to replace punter Brian Schmiedebusch. Joe Davidson is expected to fill that role.

2014 Returning Special Team Stats

Tate	18-of-22 FG	52 Long	59-of-61 PAT
Farinella	93 KO's	60.8 Avg.	29 TB

LINEBACKERS

Two second team All-Mid-American Conference linebackers return to anchor the Orange and Brown in 2014. D.J. Lynch and Gabe Martin are expected to play a large role in the Falcon defense this season.

Lynch finished the 2013 season as the leading tackler on the Bowling Green defense - a unit which ranked tops in the MAC and inside the top 10 nationally. Lynch recorded 85 tackles, including a team-high 8.0 tackles for loss and two sacks. Additionally, he had one pass breakup, four quarterback hurries, and a recovered fumble.

Gabe Martin returns after suffering a season-ending injury during the Falcons' eighth game of the season. Despite only playing in seven games, Martin finished with 36 tackles and was named second team All-MAC.

Paul Senn (37 tackles) returns as well after playing in all 14 games last year.

2014 Returning LB Stats

Name	GP	Solo	Ast.	Total	TFL-Yds	Sacks
Lynch	14	42	43	85	8.0-23	2.0-9
Senn	14	20	17	37	5.0-24	1.5-17
Martin	7	25	11	36	3.5-15	2.0-12

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Bowling Green's secondary will be anchored by the only member that returns as a 2013 starter, Ryland Ward. Ward finished second on the team with 81 tackles in 2013, including two interceptions, five pass breakups, seven pass defenses, two recovered fumbles, and one forced fumble.

The Falcon secondary will look to players such as Brian Sutton, Jude Adjei-Barimah, Darrell Hunter, and Will Watson to fill the voids left by BooBoo Gates (first team All-MAC), Cameron Truss, and Aaron Foster. Several other players will also compete for playing time.

Sutton finished the 2013 season with 43 tackles. Sutton played mostly as rover, but will make the switch to the secondary in 2014. Jude Adjei-Barimah recorded 24 tackles in 12 games last season.

Darrell Hunter is expected to return to the field after missing the entire 2013 season. Hunter suffered a season-ending injury early in fall camp last season.

Will Watson saw considerable time in 2013, being forced into action with several injuries to the secondary. Watson had 18 tackles, three pass breakups, and one fumble recovery which he returned 37 yards for a touchdown.

Dino Babers

Head Coach, First Season
Hawai'i, 1984

Dino Babers, who was introduced as the 18th coach in school history on Dec. 18, 2013, begins his first season as head football coach at Bowling Green State University in 2014. Babers comes to Northwest Ohio after two very successful seasons as the head coach at Eastern Illinois University.

"We are so proud to have Dino and his family join Bowling Green State University," Kingston began. "Dino brings with him an incredible resume of successful experiences that absolutely fit the Falcon football program. He is a proven winner who is in the business of developing young men who desire success on the field, in the classroom and in the community. His ability to maximize talent through skill development is unmatched."

Babers brings 30 years of coaching experience with him to BGSU, including a 19-7 record as a head coach. In 2013, Babers led Eastern Illinois to a 12-2 record, a No. 2 national ranking, and a quarterfinal appearance in the FCS playoffs. The Panthers outscored their opponents 675-319. Upon his arrival at EIU, Babers took a Panthers team, which had finished in last place in the Ohio Valley Conference in 2011, and led them to a first-place finish in 2012 with a 6-1 league mark. It was just the fourth time in OVC history in which a team had gone from worst-to-first in a single season. For his efforts, he was named the Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year in each of the past two years.

During his two seasons at EIU, Babers led the best offense in all of FCS. The Panthers led the nation in yards per game (589.5) and points per game (48.2) in 2013. In addition, EIU averaged 372.4 yards per game through the air and 217.1 yards per game on the ground.

"I am honored and excited to join the Falcon family," Babers said. "BGSU has great facilities and the fans have proven that their support of BGSU football is among the best in the MAC. I want to thank President Mazey, Chris Kingston, and Lesley Irvine for the opportunity to take over the Bowling Green program. My family and I are excited to be in Bowling Green and members of the Falcon family. I want to thank the Eastern Illinois players and fans for their support the last two years, especially President Perry and (former athletics director) Barbara Burke."

Under the guidance of Babers, quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo was named the Walter Payton Award winner, the FCS equivalent of the Heisman Trophy -- given to the nation's best player. Garoppolo threw for 5,050 yards and 53 touchdowns in 2013. During his two seasons under Babers' guidance, he threw for 8,873 yards and 84 scores.

Babers, best-known for his offensive firepower, has proven to be an effective defensive coach, as well. The Panthers were in the top 30 nationally in scoring defense, red zone defense, and passing defense efficiency in 2013. They were also one of the most prolific defenses in the all of FCS at forcing turnovers, as they finished sixth in the nation with a plus-14 turnover margin. EIU forced 37 turnovers on the year and ranked first in the country with 23 fumbles recovered.

Both Garoppolo and wide receiver Erik Lora were named the best at their position by the FCS Athletic Directors Association. Lora followed up his record breaking 2012 season (in which he was named the OVC Player of the Year) by catching 123 passes for 1,554 yards and 19 touchdowns in 14 games. The 123 catches were the second-most in FCS history, trailing only the record-setting 136 catches he had in 2012. The 1,544 yards were the second-most in OVC history (behind only his record of 1,664 set in 2012) and 15th in FCS history. His 19 receiving touchdowns were the most in OVC history, as were his 35 career receiving touchdowns.

Under Babers, Eastern Illinois' offense used the talents of more than just one receiver as four wideouts had at least 700 yards and eight touchdowns last year. Adam Drake joined Lora with over 1,000 yards in 2013, as he caught 85 passes for 1,305 yards and 13 touchdowns. In addition to the aerial assault, EIU featured a dynamic rushing attack. As a team, the Panthers had 35 rushing touchdowns and featured two backs who had big years. Shepard Little rushed for 1,551 yards and 15 touchdowns on the season, while Taylor Duncan had 988 yards and 10 touchdowns.

The Babers Family (L-R): Breeahnah, Tasha, Dino, Susan, Jazzmin, and Paris

Prior to becoming the head coach at Eastern Illinois, Babers spent four seasons at Baylor under Art Briles from 2008-11. During his time in Waco, he served as the special teams coordinator, recruiting coordinator, and outside receivers coach, coaching NFL stars such as Robert Griffin III, Kendall Wright, and Josh Gordon. Prior to that, he spent four seasons at UCLA as an assistant head coach, recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach. His other coaching stints have included stops at Pittsburgh, Texas A&M, Arizona, San Diego State, Purdue, Northern Arizona, Nevada, Eastern Illinois, Arizona State, and Hawaii.

More impressively, Babers has mentored more than 30 receivers who have played in the NFL, and several other top draft picks. Among the players who have been coached by Babers, six of them were drafted in the first two rounds. The Tennessee Titans drafted wide receiver Kendall Wright in the first round, while running back Trung Candidate was a first round pick by the St. Louis Rams in 2000. Four others—wide receivers Brian Alford, Will Blackwell, Dennis Northcutt and Josh Gordon—were taken in the second round. Additionally, Babers' quarterback at Eastern Illinois, Jimmy Garoppolo, was drafted in the second round by the New England Patriots in 2014.

Babers was a four-year starter at the University of Hawaii, Academic All-WAC, and captain his senior year. He is married to his wife Susan. They have four daughters—Breeahnah, Tasha, Jazzmin, and Paris.

Nick Monroe

Secondary, Fifth Season
St. Cloud State, 2001

Nick Monroe begins his fifth year as an assistant coach at Bowling Green State University in 2014. He will coach the secondary under head coach Dino Babers.

2013 was a banner year for the Bowling Green secondary under Monroe, as the Falcons finished the year with the sixth best passing defense in the country. Once again, senior BooBoo Gates was named first team All-MAC at safety. The most notable defensive performance by the Falcons came in game 11, when the Falcons held Eastern Michigan to just four passing yards in a 55-7 win.

In 2012 Monroe established one of the best secondary units in the country, finishing the season ranked as the 13th-best pass defense (190.1 yards per game) in the nation. On three different occasions his secondary did not even allow 100 yards passing. His secondary featured a pair of All-MAC performers in Gates (first-team) and Cameron Truss (third-team).

Monroe's vision could be seen back in 2011 when it featured arguably the youngest secondary in the country with three sophomores and two freshmen. Truss led the team with nine pass breakups, while first-year starters Ryland Ward and Aaron Foster were third on the team with 69 tackles.

In 2010 Monroe coached a secondary that featured four new starters. Monroe helped coach Jovan Leacock, who came to BGSU as a wide receiver, into a safety that finished second on the team with 91 tackles and added two interceptions. The secondary also featured Truss, who led the team with seven pass breakups.

Prior to his time at BGSU Monroe was the co-defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Colgate University. He spent six years on the defensive side of the ball, beginning as the outside linebackers coach before moving to the secondary in 2006.

In 2009, Colgate finished the season ranked No. 1 in total defense in the Patriot League. In his last three years as the secondary coach, Monroe had four first-team All-Patriot League selections and one second-team pick.

In 2008, cornerback Wayne Moten was named Colgate's Defensive MVP and was first-team all-league.

In 2009, strong safety Uzi Idah was named Colgate's Defensive MVP and was first-team all-league. That same season, true freshman cornerback Demetri Diamond was named the Patriot League Rookie of the Year.

Colgate won a pair of Patriot League Championships while Monroe was there in 2005 and 2008. Both league championships earned berths to the Division 1-AA (now FCS) National Playoffs.

Prior to his time at Colgate, Monroe was the secondary coach for two seasons at Allegheny College, where the team won the conference championship in 2003 and earned a berth in the NCAA Division III National Playoffs.

Monroe was a four-year letterwinner at St. Cloud State University and a one year starter at cornerback. He graduated from St. Cloud State in 2001 with a degree in marketing.

Mike Lynch

Running Backs, First Season
Montana, 1998

Mike Lynch enters his first season as an assistant coach with the Falcons in 2014. He previously coached nine seasons at EIU, including the past two under Dino Babers. Lynch will coach the running backs at Bowling Green in 2014.

As the running backs coach in 2013, Lynch mentored two backs who anchored a rushing attack which totaled over 3,000 yards. Shepard Little rushed for 1,551 yards and 15 touchdowns a season ago, while Taylor Duncan had 988 yards and 10 touchdowns for the Panthers.

Lynch moved over to coach running backs in 2012 after coaching wide receivers the previous five seasons. During the 2012 season Lynch coached Jake Walker who earned second team All-OVC honors as he rushed for 1,133 yards on the season. Walker became just the tenth running back in EIU history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season. As a unit the running backs rushed for 20 touchdowns.

In 2011 Lynch's wide receivers unit accounted for 20 of the team's 33 touchdowns with junior Chris Wright hauling in 11 touchdown passes. Prior to an injury to senior Lorence Ricks, the Panthers were one of only three teams at the FCS level with three active 1,000 yard receivers on the roster. EIU's wide receiver corps hauled in 160 passes for 1,960 yards.

In 2009 Lynch helped coach one of the youngest wide receiving groups in the nation as three starters were underclassmen. That unit responded by hauling in 19 touchdown passes with 184 receptions for 2,288 yards. It was a balanced attack where the top receiver had only 32 catches with eight different receivers accounting for Panther touchdowns. In 2010 that same group of receivers caught 193 passes for 2,279 yards and 18 touchdowns. Four different receivers posted 100-plus yard receiving days including Chris Wright with 217 yards during an overtime win at Tennessee State which ranks third on EIU's career list.

In 2007, EIU wide receivers hauled in 218 passes for 2,300 yards including another big year by senior Micah Rucker who had nine touchdowns and 777 yards receiving.

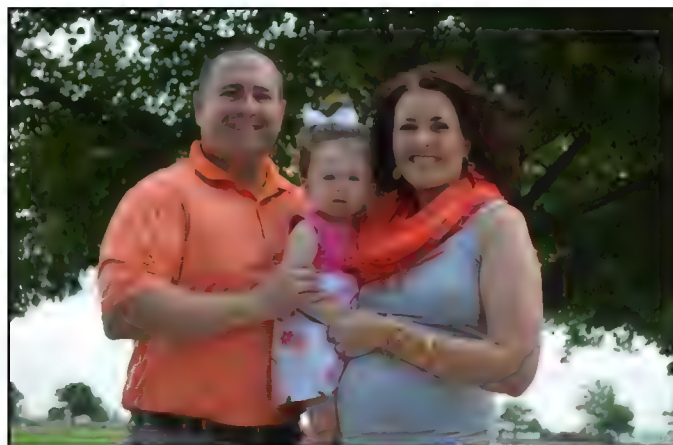

During the 2006 season Lynch helped coach Micah Rucker as the junior receiver earned second team All-American honors for the Panthers with 13 touchdowns and 966 yards receiving.

Prior to joining the EIU staff, Lynch made a name for himself as a member of the Utah State coaching staff from 2000-04. While with the Aggies, Lynch helped coach three tight ends that would sign with NFL teams. Chris Cooley was a third round selection of the Washington Redskins in the 2003, draft while J.R. Suguturaga and Casey Poppinga both signed free agent contracts.

A Roseville, Calif. native, Lynch played two seasons at Sierra Junior College in California before playing two seasons at center at the University of Montana. His 1997 and 1998 Grizzly teams won 16 games and made two straight NCAA I-AA playoff appearances. He would serve as a restricted earnings coach in 1999 on the UM staff.

Lynch earned his bachelors degree from Montana and a masters in secondary education from Utah State. He was married to the former Emily Schilling in June 2011. The couple has one daughter - Madison.

In 2010 Garoppolo continued to develop as he moved into the EIU career and single season passing lists in several categories.

EIU's 2009 offense featured a more balanced offensive attack as quarterback Jake Christensen and running back Mon Williams were both second team All-OVC selections. The Panthers scored 19 touchdowns through the air and another 11 on the ground.

In 2008 the Panthers offense produced a 1,000 rusher for the fifth straight season as Travorus Bess climbed into the career Top 15 on the Panthers charts.

He was named the AFCA Division I-AA Assistant Coach of the Year in 2002 as the Panthers offensive unit ranked fourth in the nation in scoring (35.3 ppg) and fifth in total offense (452.6 yards/game).

During his first stop at EIU, Wittke coached 14 players who earned offensive All-American honors and numerous all-conference selections in both the Ohio Valley Conference and Gateway Football Conference. THE MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE

THIS IS THE MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE

Providing leadership in education and diversity, the Mid-American Conference moves into its 69th year of service to the student-athlete.

Since its inception in 1946, the Mid-American Conference has progressively grown and developed into one of the most aggressive Division I conferences in the country. One of only ten football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) conferences, the MAC named Dr. Jon A. Steinbrecher as its eighth commissioner in March of 2009.

The league has grown its commitment to championships by expanding to six its number of neutral site post season events – football (Ford Field, Detroit), men's and women's basketball (Quicken Loans Arena, Cleveland), softball (Firestone Stadium, Akron) and baseball (All Pro Freight Stadium, Avon, Ohio). In addition, the SPIRE Academy (Geneva, Ohio) will also serve as the site for the 2015 MAC men's swimming & diving championship.

In addition to growing its commitment to MAC championships, Steinbrecher has strategically positioned the MAC's participation in hosting NCAA events and championships. The MAC will serve as the host for the 2015 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Midwest Regional and was recently awarded the 2018 NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships as both events will take place at Quicken Loans Arena in Cleveland. The MAC has also hosted both the 2012 and 2014 NCAA Women's Bowling Championships under his direction.

In 2013, the MAC had five programs receive football bowl invitations: Bowling Green (Little Caesars Pizza Bowl), Northern Illinois (San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl), Ball State (GoDaddy Bowl), Buffalo (Famous Idaho Potato Bowl) and Ohio (Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl St. Petersburg). The MAC had three programs with 10 or more wins (Northern Illinois 12-2; Ball State 10-3; Bowling Green 10-4) which tied for third among FBS conferences (ACC, Big 12 and Conference USA), trailing only the SEC and Pac-12.

Last December Northern Illinois quarterback Jordan Lynch finished third overall in the Heisman Trophy voting, the highest ever finish by a MAC student-athlete. Lynch was invited to the Heisman Trophy Award ceremony in New York City and became only the third MAC student-athlete to receive an invitation to the ceremony – Marshall QB Chad Pennington (1999) and Marshall WR Randy Moss (1997).

Buffalo Bulls linebacker Khalil Mack was the fifth overall selection by the Oakland Raiders in the 2014 NFL Draft. Mack's selection was the highest ever for the Buffalo program and the second-highest ever selection for a MAC student-athlete. This marked the second consecutive year for the MAC to have its two highest ever selections in the NFL Draft. In the 2013 NFL Draft, Central Michigan offensive tackle Eric Fisher was selected as the first overall selection by the Kansas City Chiefs, making Fisher the first-ever football player from the MAC selected first overall in the NFL Draft.

In 2012, the MAC witnessed a record setting seven teams receive bowl invitations, including the first ever BCS Bowl invitation with Northern Illinois playing in the Discover Orange Bowl on Jan. 1, 2013. The MAC also had four football programs ranked in the top 25 of national polls – Northern Illinois, Kent State, Toledo and Ohio—as the BCS Standings had two MAC programs in the Top 25 at the end of the regular season with No. 15 Northern Illinois and No. 25 Kent State. The MAC also set a conference record for the most wins against FBS opponents with 16 victories.

In the fall of 2013, the MAC announced the creation of newly created bowl games in Boca Raton, Fla., Nassau, Bahamas, Miami Beach, Fla., and Montgomery, Ala. for a six-year period (2014-2019). The creation of the Boca Raton, Bahamas and Miami Beach Bowls is the centerpiece of a joint agreement between several FBS conferences and will be supported by several FBS conferences on a six-year rotating basis.

The Boca Raton Bowl will be owned and operated by ESPN and will be played at FAU Stadium, an open air stadium which seats nearly 30,000 fans on the campus of Florida Atlantic University. The Bahamas Bowl will be played at Thomas A. Robinson Stadium. The Miami Beach Bowl will be played at Marlins Park. The Camellia Bowl, based in Montgomery, Ala., is owned and operated by ESPN and will be played in the Cramton Bowl, a 25,000 seat stadium.

The MAC is also a partner with the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl as a primary partner in 2017 and 2019, and a secondary partner in 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2018 bowl seasons. The MAC will play the Mountain West in both the 2017 and 2019 bowl seasons, played at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego.

Starting in the 2014 season, the MAC will have a minimum five guaranteed bowl opportunities. The MAC has long-term primary contracts with the GoDaddy Bowl (based in Mobile, Ala.) through the 2017 season and Famous Idaho Potato Bowl (based in Boise, Ida.) through the 2019 season.

In its partnership with ESPN, the MAC is in the sixth year of its eight-year rights agreement (through 2016-2017 academic years) for football, as well as men's and women's basketball. The deal is the most extensive in the history of the conference. The agreement calls for a minimum of 25 events annually to be produced and aired on an ESPN platform including the men's and women's basketball championships, a regular-season MAC presence on ESPN, the Marathon MAC Football Championship Game and a minimum of 11 regular-season football games.

In men's basketball, the MAC witnessed the No. 1 seed Western Michigan win its first MAC Men's Basketball Tournament since 2004. The MAC had five programs invited to post-season tournaments (NCAA-Western Michigan; NIT-Toledo; CIT-Akron, Eastern Michigan and Ohio). Eastern Michigan advanced to the CIT Second Round, while Ohio advanced to the CIT Quarterfinals. Buffalo

During the 2013-14 academic year, the University of Akron men's soccer team won its tenth MAC championship and sixth in the last seven years. The Zips defeated Indiana in the 2013 NCAA first round before falling to Marquette, which snapped a string of five consecutive NCAA Round of 16 appearances. Akron witnessed senior Aodhan Quinn selected as one of 15 semifinalists for the prestigious Hermann Trophy. MAC affiliate member West Virginia had junior Andy Bevin named to the Capital One Academic All-America First Team. The MAC had two student-athletes selected in the first round of the 2013 Major League Soccer Supplemental Draft – No. 3 overall Akron goalkeeper David Meyers (Portland Timbers) and No. 12 overall West Virginia defender Eric Schoenle (Philadelphia Union).

In wrestling, the MAC welcomed Missouri, Northern Iowa and Old Dominion as affiliate members over the last two seasons. Missouri won the 2014 conference tournament title for the second consecutive year. True freshman J'Den Cox of Missouri won the 197 lb. national championship to become the ninth MAC wrestler to win a national championship. A MAC record 43 wrestlers competed at the NCAA Wrestling Championships and the MAC witnessed nine wrestlers named All-American – Joe Roth, Central Michigan (7th place at 133); Ian Miller, Kent State (4th place at 141); J'Den Cox, Missouri (1st place at 197); Drake Houdashelt, Missouri (5th place at 149); Dylan Peters, Northern Iowa (6th place at 125); Joe Colon, Northern Iowa (3rd place at 133); Joey Lazor, Northern Iowa (6th place at 141); Jeremy Johnson, Ohio (7th place at 285) and Jack Dechow, Old Dominion (4th place at 184).

In men's cross country, Eastern Michigan claimed its 18th conference championship, while Missouri State won its first ever swimming & diving championship as an affiliate member. In men's tennis, Ball State won its second MAC title in four years.

Akron won its third MAC indoor track and field title in the last four years. Akron sophomore Shawn Barber became the school's first male individual national champion by winning the pole vault. In men's outdoor track and field, Eastern Michigan won its 22nd conference title in program history and junior Donald Scott garnered First Team All-American honors in the triple jump after taking sixth in the nation. Kent State's Matthias Tayala became the second MAC track and field student-athlete crowned a national champion this year in the hammer throw during the 2014 NCAA outdoor track and field championships.

The 2014 track and field season was a historic one for the MAC with three national champions across men's and women's athletics. Akron's Shawn Barber was the 2014 NCAA indoor track and field pole vault champion clearing 5.75m, Akron's Annika Roloff was the 2014 NCAA outdoor track and field pole vault champion clearing 4.40m, while Kent State's Matthias Tayala was the 2014 NCAA outdoor track and field hammer throw champion with a distance of 73.57m.

Kent State won the program's sixth consecutive and 20th overall conference title in men's golf and received its 27th NCAA appearance. Kent State senior Taylor Pendrith became just the second player in program history to represent Kent State in the NCAA finals in each of his four seasons, including this year at Prairie Dunes Country Club in Hutchinson, Kansas.

Kent State won its 11th MAC baseball tournament as the No. 3 seed and has won either the regular season or tournament title in 14 of the last 15 seasons. Earlier this summer the MAC witnessed 15 student-athletes selected in the 2014 Major League Baseball Draft led by Central Michigan starting pitcher Jordan Foley, who became the Chippewas highest draft pick in more than a decade when he was selected in the fifth round by the New York Yankees. Also, Ball State senior outfielder Sean Godfrey (drafted by Atlanta) and Miami senior pitcher Seth Varner (drafted by Cincinnati) were named to the Louisville Slugger All-America Third Team as chosen by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper.

Women's athletics continued to shine for the MAC this past year. In women's basketball, Akron won its first ever MAC tournament championship and a program record 23 wins during the 2013-14 season. A total of five MAC programs were invited to post-season tournaments (NCAA-Akron; WNIT-Ball State, Bowling Green, Central Michigan; WBI-Eastern Michigan). Bowling Green defeated High Point, St. Bonaventure and Michigan in the WNIT before falling to Rutgers in the WNIT Quarterfinals.

In women's soccer, Western Michigan earned the program's first MAC title in ten years and went on to defeat No. 8 Marquette, 1-0, in the NCAA College Cup First Round before falling to Notre Dame. In volleyball, Ohio claimed its eighth MAC title and fell to Michigan State in the NCAA First Round. Ohio's Abby Gilleland and Kelly Lamberti, along with Toledo's Lauren Rafdal, were named Division I All-American Honorable Mention.

In women's cross country, Miami claimed the MAC title for the third time in program history, while Ohio's Juli Accurso won her second consecutive Great Lakes Regional and earned All-America honors at NCAA Regionals.

In field hockey, Miami won the program's second consecutive conference title, while the RedHawks program won the conference championship in women's tennis for the second consecutive year and the fourth time in the last six years.

Akron won its first ever MAC swimming & diving championship, while Central Michigan won its fifth consecutive MAC tournament title in gymnastics.

In women's indoor track and field, Kent State won its fourth conference title in the last five years, while the Golden Flashes won the women's outdoor track and field championship for the fourth consecutive year. Akron's Annika Roloff was the 2014 NCAA outdoor track and field pole vault champion clearing 4.40m.

In women's golf, Kent State won its 16th consecutive conference championship. Kent State freshman Wad Phaewchimplee became the second Golden Flash in history to win a NCAA Regional and was named All-American Honorable Mention by the Women's Golf Coaches Association (WGCA).

History of the MAC

Based in Cleveland since July 1999 following a 15-year stay in Toledo, Ohio, the MAC has established historic measurements in both football and men's and women's basketball since moving to Northeast Ohio. The MAC was founded as a five-school league on February 24, 1946 in Columbus, Ohio with Ohio, Butler, Cincinnati, Wayne State and Western Reserve admitted as charter members. The Mid-American Conference membership consists of 12 universities across five states (Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, New York and Ohio).

In 1946 men's basketball was the first competitive sport in the MAC, which now sponsors a total 23 sports. Women's sports were brought into the conference's structure in 1980. For men, there are 11 championships sponsored in football, basketball, baseball, cross country, soccer, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, wrestling, golf and tennis. For women, 12 championships are sponsored in basket-

2013 REVIEW • GAME RECAPS

Game 7 - Mississippi St. 21, BGSU 20

Falcons' Upset Bid Comes Up One Point Short At MSU

* BGSU failed to convert a fourth-and-11 from its own 45-yard line late in the fourth quarter, before fumbling on a series of laterals to end the contest.

* An extra point following a Dak Prescott 10-yard rushing touchdown in the second quarter proved to be the game-winning tally for Mississippi State.

* Quarterback Matt Johnson threw for 224 yards on 20-of-34 passing. Johnson's two-yard rushing touchdown was the only score of the second half.

* The Falcons outgained the hosts, 224-177, through the air. But the Bulldogs outrushed BG, 245-160.

* Bowling Green scored the final 10 points of the ballgame, as kicker Tyler Tate converted on a 45-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the second quarter.

* Running back Travis Greene led all Bowling Green rushers with 99 yards on 15 attempts.

* Wide receiver Jared Cohen caught a team-high five passes for 51 yards.

* Defensive back BooBoo Gates intercepted a pass in the first quarter, and returned it 34 yards down to the MSU 13-yard line.

* Linebacker Paul Swan registered a game-high 11 tackles.

* Defensive linemen Kendall Montgomery and Taylor Royster recorded a sack apiece.

BGSU HISTORY

BGSU HISTORY • FALCON TRADITION

Scott Mruczkowski and Mike Thaler celebrate the Falcons' 28-24 Motor City Bowl win over Northwestern in 2003. It marked the first-time in MAC history that a league school ever faced a Big Ten opponent in the post-season.

Since Frederick G. Beyerman, an instructor in the physical education department and the first athletic director, announced in July, 1919 that Bowling Green State Normal College would field an intercollegiate football team, a rich tradition has developed.

From that very first team, to the first squad to go unbeaten in 1928, to the first perfect record of the 1959 national college division champions, to, most recently, back-to-back seasons of nationally ranked division IA football.

From former head coach Warren Steller, to Max Minnich, the first BGSU player to be drafted by a professional team, to Fred Durig, the first All-America selection, to legendary head coach Doyt Perry, to Paul Miles, the only football player ever to have his jersey retired, to Dave Preston, the career rushing leader, to record-setting quarterback Brian McClure, to head coach Dave Clawson, to Freddie Barne a 2009 Biletnikoff Finalist and NCAA record holder for catches in a season (155) the Bowling Green State University football program has a tradition as rich as any in the Mid-American Conference, and many programs nationally.

Since 19 of the 30 males enrolled at Normal College banded together to form that first team, many different people, players, and games have combined to mold the lore of football at BGSU.

The following paragraphs will touch on many of the people and games which carved the Falcon football history.

The program got off to a rocky start losing its first seven games played.

Franklin Skibbie scored the first touchdown with BG's only points in the 10-6 loss to Findlay in the 1920 season opener.

That team would post a 7-0 win over Kent State Normal College (Kent State) in the season finale to record the first win.

The 1921 squad was the first to win a conference title capturing the Northwest Conference championship with wins over Defiance, Findlay, and Toledo. BG posted a shutout of Findlay, scoring a school-record 151 points in one of the most talked-about games in school history. In the season opener against Kent State, played behind what is now Ridge Street School, the Falcons played possibly the quietest game in school history when all fans were prohibited from making noise because of an illness in the neighborhood.

The following season, BG held its first homecoming game on Nov. 4, 1922, which was played at the Fairgrounds. Bowling Green and Toledo battled to a 6-6 deadlock.

After having a different coach in each of its first five seasons, Warren Steller was selected to coach the 1924 squad, the beginning of a very successful 11-year tenure, the second-longest in school history. Steller was the first BGSU head coach to have an assistant when Paul Landis was hired in 1925.

Led by Chet Chapman, the first BG player to earn first team All-Ohio honors, the 1928 team posted the first unbeaten record while allowing just 18 points in seven games.

In 1936, the federal government offered to help Bowling Green financially in the construction of a new football stadium and the Trustees accepted the offer. University Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 23, 1937 and served as the home of Falcon football until 1966 when Doyt L. Perry Stadium was built. University Stadium was located in what is now the center of campus directly west of Jerome Library.

In 1941, Robert Whittaker was named the head coach at Bowling Green after compiling an 11-year record of 89-19-2 at Sandusky High School. Whittaker's first of his 14 teams (the longest tenure in school history) tied Case Western Reserve for the Ohio Conference title and was thought to be one of the best teams ever, scoring 173 while allowing just 40.

Brian McClure is one of only two players in MAC history (both from BG) to earn league MVP honors twice.

After back-to-back losing seasons in 1953 and 1954, Doyt Perry began his legendary career as the Falcon head coach in 1955 and made an immediate impact. BG posted a 7-1-1 record, scoring 224 points while allowing only 53. This came on the heels of a 2-7 record the previous season.

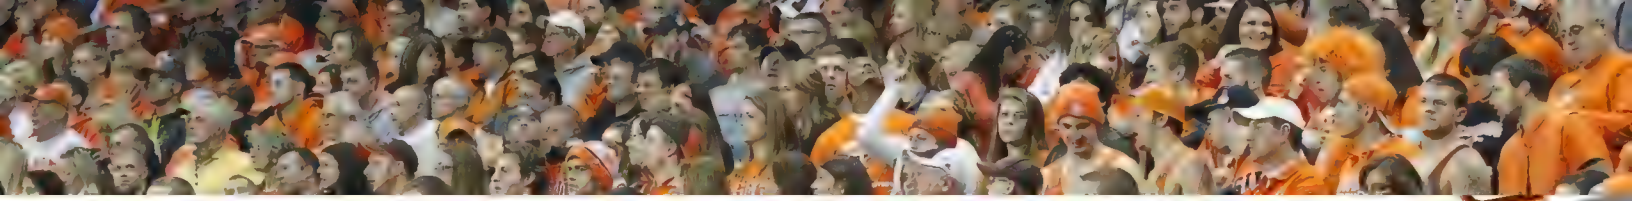

Perry, whose teams never lost more than two games in any of his 10 seasons, led his 1959 squad to the first perfect record in school history at 9-0-0. In the process, the Falcons were named the mythical small college national champions by the Washington, D.C. Touchdown Club.

BGSU HISTORY • FALCON TRADITION

Urban Meyer served as head coach for the Falcons in 2001 and 2002 and guided BGSU to a 17-6 record and a No. 16 ranking in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll in 2002.

American Conference victory at Ohio University by a 13-9 count to wrap up the perfect season and national honor.

The following season, BG came within one game of repeating as national champions losing only a 14-7 decision to OU at home as the Bobcats claimed top national honors.

In 1961, Bowling Green played in its first bowl game, the Mercy Bowl at the Los Angeles Coliseum. The game against Fresno State was played to raise money to help defray the expenses of the families of 16 members of the Cal Poly San Luis Obispo football team who perished in a plane crash shortly after takeoff from Toledo Express Airport after a 1960 game against BG.

The game netted $170,000 for the memorial fund.

The arrival of a skinny, much-heralded quarterback from Ravenna, Ohio in 1982 signaled the beginning of an 11-year period in which the Falcons would make four bowl appearances.

The quarterback was Brian McClure and all he would do in the next four seasons was lead the Falcons to a 34-12 record, a 19-1 record at home, two bowl games, and become only the second quarterback in NCAA history to pass for over 10,000 yards.

He became the starter in the third game of his freshman season, and despite missing the last two games of the regular season, he became the first freshman to be named a first-team all-league quarterback.

He would rewrite the BG and MAC record books before his career was over, setting five NCAA records as well. McClure still holds numerous school and MAC records.

In 1991, Gary Blackney was tabbed as the 14th head football coach, and much like the arrival of McClure, he made an immediate impact on the program.

One of the most significant wins in school history was the 17-13 victory over 18th-ranked Purdue in 1972. A fourth quarter field goal by Don Taylor was the difference for Coach Don Nehlen and his Falcons.

In his first season, he took a team which compiled a 3-5-2 mark the previous season and molded them into an 11-1 squad, going undefeated in the MAC while winning the program's first bowl game.

The following season was more of the same as the Falcons were again perfect in league play and a win over Nevada in the first Las Vegas Bowl made it back-to-back bowl victories. The 1993 squad would extend the conference winning streak to a league-record 19 games while going unbeaten in the first 22 MAC games of Blackney's tenure.

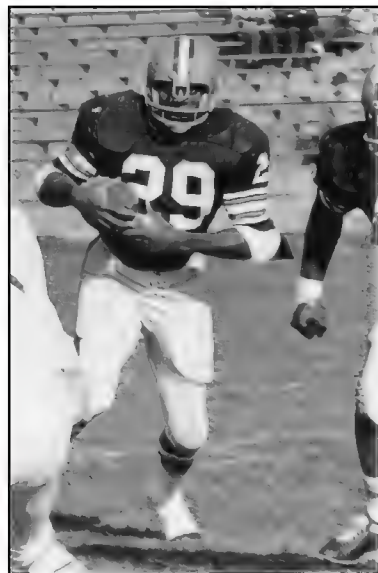

Urban Meyer took over the reins of the Falcon program in 2001 and engineered the top turnaround in Division IA. The Falcons opened the Meyer era with an impressive road win at Missouri and followed that up with wins over Buffalo and Temple, surpassing their victory total of the previous year.

BGSU posted its first winning season since 1994 when it reeled off three straight wins to end the season. The Falcons' 43-42 victory at Northwestern made them the first MAC team to ever defeat three teams from BCS conferences in a single season.

On Oct. 24 and 25, 2003, ESPN's College Gameday made its home south of Doyt L. Perry Stadium. That marked the first, and only, time in MAC history that the nation's most watched college football pre-game show visited a league venue.

BGSU HISTORY • FALCON TRADITION

Paul Miles is second on the BG career rushing list with 3,238 yards while he is also the only football player to have his number retired. At the time of his graduation, he was only the third running back in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons.

The Falcons ended the season six days later with a 56-21 pasting of MAC Champion Toledo.

In 2002, BGSU roared to an 8-0 start including wins over Missouri and Kansas and were ranked in both the AP and Coaches polls at the same time for the first time in school history.

Meyer's offensive coordinator, Gregg Brandon, took over as head coach in December, 2002, and guided the Falcons to their first-ever MAC West title and Motor City Bowl Championship and finished ranked in the top 25 (No. 23) in both major polls at the end of a season for the first-time in school history.

One player who links Blackney, Meyer and Brandon was All-American quarterback Josh Harris. The Westerville, Ohio native came to BGSU with the intention of sitting out the 2000 season as a redshirt, but was pressed into duty when injuries decimated the Falcon backfield.

Serving as a running back and kick returner for the bulk of the season, Harris showed signs of greatness in glimpses and even started his first career game on ESPN against Toledo.

Meyer took over the program the following season and inserted Harris into the starting lineup for good in the ninth game of the season and watched his team win 11 straight games over the next two seasons and earn its first national ranking since 1985.

The Motor City Bowl MVP guided the Falcons to a 6-1 record in three seasons as a starter against BCS competition.

The 2003 season gave BGSU its highest national profile and elevated the program to new heights. Longtime Falcon fans have viewed the program's 1972 win over the Boilermakers as one of the biggest in BGSU history.

Well, lightning strikes twice. While Purdue entered the day with a No. 16 national ranking and visions of BCS aspirations dancing in their heads, the Falcons were able to keep it close and the Falcons converted twice on fourth down, capped by a 32-yard miracle pass-and-catch from Harris to Charles Sharon with 2:08 remaining to post a 27-26 win.

The Falcons were back into the national spotlight with a No. 23 ranking by the AP and a showdown with undefeated and No. 12 Northern Illinois showed so much promise that ESPN's College Gameday made Bowling Green its home for the weekend. For the first time in 20 years, Doyt Perry Stadium was sold out and the game was shown on ESPN2.

All-American Janssen Patton set an NCAA record by picking off three passes in a game for the third time in his career and Harris directed the BGSU offense flawlessly as the Falcons prevailed 34-18 in just the second-ever regular season meeting between two nationally-ranked MAC schools. The Falcons would spend the next seven weeks in both national polls and were ranked 24th in the final BCS standings.

In what would be the most meaningful game in the history of the BGSU/Toledo rivalry, a national TV audience and another sellout crowd would witness the first meeting in which the two schools played the final game of the regular season for an outright championship.

The Falcons rallied in the fourth quarter in front of a second home sellout crowd to post a 31-23 win over arch rival Toledo. That would secure the Falcons' first-ever MAC Championship game appearance at home against No. 12 Miami.

In the MAC's first-ever battle with the Big Ten

Coach Gregg Brandon and assistant coach Dennis Springer celebrate the Falcons' 27-26 win over No. 16 Purdue.

The Mid-American Conference title won by the 1991 team was the first of two consecutive championships. The 1991 team won all eight of its MAC games, the first of what would turn into a league-record 19-game winning streak.

in post-season play, Harris earned MVP honors completing a bowl record 38 passes as the Falcons posted a 28-24 win over Northwestern. The victory allowed the Falcons to finish the 2003 season in both the AP and Coaches polls for the first time in school history.

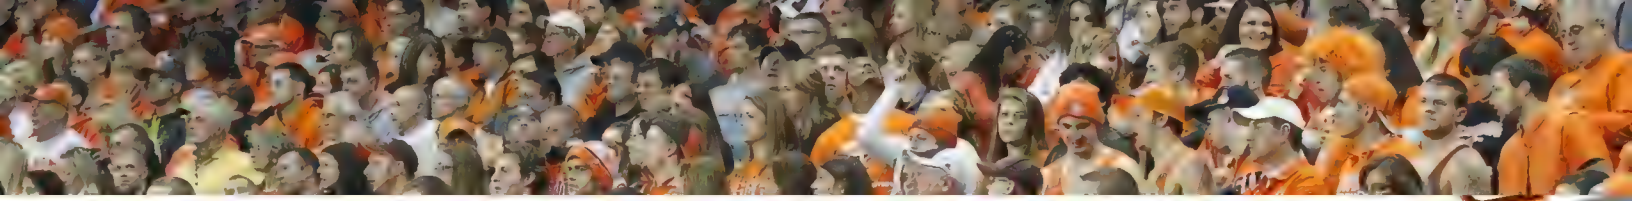

In 2004, BGSU once again enjoyed the national spotlight when they opened the season on the road at Oklahoma in a game that was televised by ABC. While the Falcons fell 40-24 to a team which would play for the national title, a new era was ushered in that day.

Sophomore quarterback Omar Jacobs, in his first collegiate start, would hold his own that day with Heisman Trophy winner Jason White. Jacobs would go on to earn All-American honors and MAC Offensive Player of the Year recognition after throwing for a national best 41 TD passes. He completed 309-of-462 passes for a BGSU record 4,002 yards.

Following a 1-2 start, BGSU erupted for a 70-16 victory at Temple, won their next seven games, and were ranked by both AP and ESPN for the third straight year.

Charles Sharon hauls in this 32-yard touchdown pass with 2:08 left in BGSU's upset win over Purdue in 2003.

BGSU HISTORY • FALCON TRADITION

All-American quarterback Josh Harris takes a 48-yard TD pass from Cole Magnier in the Falcons' 2003 win over Toledo. Harris was responsible for more than 100 TDs during his career.

BGSU would earn its second straight bowl berth and played Memphis in the GMAC Bowl. In its first game ever against a Conference USA opponent, Jacobs would throw for five TDs and 365 yards and the Falcon defense would limit the Tigers to seven points in the second half as BGSU won 52-35. The Falcons were one of a MAC record five teams selected to participate in a post-season contest.

BGSU began the 2005 season ranked 23rd by Sports Illustrated and Jacobs was featured in ESPN The Magazine.

In 2007, the Falcons were picked to finish fifth in the Mid-American Conference East preseason polls, but following a 32-31 win over Minnesota to open the season, the Falcons rolled to a MAC East co-Division Championship, going 6-2, and advancing to their third bowl appearance in five seasons, finishing 2007 with an 8-5 record.

All-American quarterback Omar Jacobs set an NCAA record by throwing 41 TD passes with just four interceptions in 2004. He was named MVP of the 2004 GMAC Bowl as BGSU defeated Memphis, 52-35.

Like 2007, in 2008 the Falcons opened the season with a bang, downing No. 25 Pittsburgh, 27-17, the Falcons' first win over a ranked team since 2003. The same season the Orange and Brown hosted Minnesota, the first time in school history that a Big Ten team ventured into Doyt Perry Stadium. BGSU finished the 2008 season with a 6-6 record, ushering in a new era with the hiring of Dave Clawson on Dec. 12, 2008.

Clawson's first year will be a memorable one, opening the year with a 31-14 win versus Troy, while finishing 6-2 in the MAC and advancing to the 2009 Humanitarian Bowl in Boise, Idaho. Clawson helped lead an offense that helped Freddie Barnes record 155 catches in 13 games, a new NCAA record, breaking the old mark of 142, held by Manny Hazard (Houston) since 1989.

Barnes' top moment came on Oct. 10, 2009 at Kent State

Tyler Sheehan finished his career with a 64.7 percent completion percentage, best in school history, while adding 10,117 yards and 70 touchdowns in three years as the Falcons' starting QB.

when he caught 22 passes for 278 yards, one catch shy of the all-time NCAA record. Barnes rode the NCAA record all the way to a Fred Biletnikoff Award finalist, given to the nation's top wide receiver.

After three seasons of rebuilding in which the Falcons went from 2-10 (2010) to 5-7 (2011) to 8-5 (2012) and a loss in the Military Bowl to San Jose State, the Falcons were primed to make a run at the Mid-American Conference.

Bowling Green opened the 2013 season with two straight wins, before suffering their only double-digit loss of the season at Indiana. The Falcons would bounce back with three straight wins at home to improve to 5-1. After a one-point loss on the road at Mississippi State and a three-point loss at home to Toledo, Bowling Green was just 5-3. The Falcons would close the regular season with four straight wins to advance to the MAC Championship Game against undefeated and highly-ranked Northern Illinois.

The Falcons would defeat NIU 47-27 to win their 11th MAC Championship and first since 1992. BGSU would advance to the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl to play ACC foe Pittsburgh.

On December 18, 2013, after the departure of Clawson, Director of Athletics D. Christopher Kingston announced the hiring of Dino Babers as the 18th Head Football Coach in Bowling Green State University history.

Babers will lead the charge in 2014 as the Falcons get ready to defend their 2013 Mid-American Conference Championship.

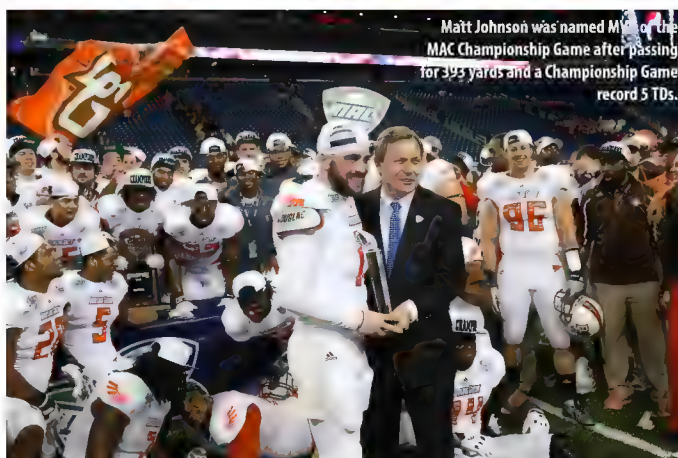

Lee Corso (left) and Kirk Herbstreit were part of the ESPN team which broadcast the 2003 MAC Championship game from Doyt Perry Stadium.

In a one-time game to help defray the expenses (burial and medical) of families of the 16 members of the Cal Poly San Luis Obispo football team who perished in a plane crash, Oct. 29, 1960, shortly after takeoff from Toledo Express Airport, Bowling Green and Fresno State, the undefeated champion of the California Collegiate Athletic Association, met at the historic Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

Playing before its largest crowd in school history, the Falcons, six-point favorites, were guilty, uncharacteristically, of six turnovers, which was the difference in the game. BG's defense, which was ranked fourth in the nation, yielded 468 yards, 196 more than it had given up to any opponent during the season. Quarterbacks Beau Carter and Jon Anabo were thorns in BG's side all day passing for 368 yards and two touchdowns. Carter ran for two scores, also.

BG scored its only points early in the second stanza on the two-yard run by Ray Bell which was set up on a long pass play between Larry Smith and quarterback Jim Potts.

BG fumbled on its next two possessions with FSU turning the second miscue into a touchdown on a long pass play. Bowling Green did have a pass dropped in the end zone as the first half ended which would have given them the lead. Fresno State then scored 1:44 apart midway through the third period to put the game away, the second score set up by a fumbled snap on an attempted punt. The contest netted $170,000 for the memorial fund which aided the survivors and the relatives of the victims of the plane crash. Cal Poly SLO had played at Bowling Green the afternoon before the crash.

After a full week of events leading up to the meeting with the Pacific Coast Athletic Association champion Fresno State, the Falcons entered the game against the Bulldogs a two-touchdown underdog.

The Falcons also had to contend with a partisan sea of red squeezed into Bulldog Stadium, the home of Fresno State.

BGSU HISTORY • BOWL GAMES

But, the Falcons drew first blood converting a Jac Tomasello interception on the final play of the first quarter into the first touchdown of the game, a Chip Otten four-yard run capping a 48-yard drive. The Falcons took a 14-0 lead to the locker room after driving 73 yards on their next possession. Sophomore quarterback Brian McClure connected with John Meek on the scoring play.

BG looked to be in the driver's seat after McClure connected with Shawn Potts from five yards out in the third stanza. But, Fresno State answered BG's score with their first of the contest later in the quarter.

Bowling Green came right back as Potts picked up a fumble by receiver Greg Taylor at the five-yard line and ran it in to put the Falcons back up by three touchdowns.

With Fresno State pinned back on its own 20-yard line and facing a third-and-ten, a Falcon stop might have put the final nail in the Fresno State coffin. But, FSU gained 15 yards on the third-down play and the comeback was on.

BG gained just 26 yards on nine plays in the fourth quarter while FSU gained 220 of its 453 yards in the final 15 minutes.

Wide receiver Mark Szlachcic (#84) had 11 receptions, two for touchdowns, for a school-record 189 yards in the 1991 California Bowl.

The tone for what was expected to be one of the most evenly-matched California Bowls, came earlier in the week when BGSU head coach Denny Stolz told the team before their Wednesday practice he would be leaving after the bowl game to accept the head coaching job at San Diego State.

An indication of what was ahead for the Falcons in the game came early in the first quarter when, trailing 7-0, they drove to the Bulldog one-yard line where they fumbled the ball away in the end zone, the first of five on the day and the same number they had committed in the first 11 games of the season. Fresno State would score the next 37 points before BG would hit paydirt.

Not even being a double-digit underdog against Fresno State could keep the Falcons from completing its storybook season under first-year head coach Gary Blackney.

And the script for this game was all Hollywood.

The first quarter would have led the fans to believe it might take 40 or 50 points to win the game as the Falcons scored touchdowns on their first two possessions and the Bulldogs would get one of those back before the quarter was over.

The scoring continued early in the second stanza as BG's Erik White and Mark Szlachcic hooked up for a second time. But, FSU came right back on their next possession with Anthony Daigle running 57 yards to cut the deficit in half going to the lockerroom.

The defenses took over in the third quarter, each allowing just 65 yards total offense. Late in the quarter, FSU placekicker Derek Mahoney missed a 26-yard field goal, the most significant scoring opportunity of the quarter.

BG scored early in the final stanza moving 80 yards after the missed field goal to build another 14-point lead.

FSU came right back to score, driving 71 yards as quarterback Mark Barsotti completed five-of-six passes, connecting with tight end Marty Thompson from five yards out.

After three changes of possession, FSU started the final drive of the game from their one-yard line, after an interception, with 2:29 remaining.

FSU used its last time out with 24 seconds left and the Bulldogs just nine yards away from the needed touchdown. After a running play for six yards and two incomplete passes, the final play of the game would determine the outcome with three seconds left.

The BG defense rose to the occasion covering all FSU receivers and Barsotti threw incomplete with BG linebacker Kevin O'Brien pressuring. It was BG's first bowl win.

BG won its 11th game making Blackney one of only three coaches in NCAA history to win 11 games in their first season as a head coach.

In the inaugural Las Vegas Bowl, which replaced the California Bowl, the Falcons faced the high-powered offense of the University of Nevada.

In a game in which the punting game took center stage, the Falcons won the first half and Nevada the second half, but a late BG touchdown proved to be the difference.

The Falcons scored on their first four possessions to grab a 28-3 halftime lead. BG had 267 first-half yards to just 116 for the Wolfpack as they had an 18-6 edge in first downs.

In the second half, it was Nevada quarterback Chris Vargas' turn. He had engineered six Nevada comeback victories in three years coming off the bench, including an NCAA-record 35-point comeback against Weber State.

Nevada scored three touchdowns in the third quarter with punts of five and seven yards by BG setting up the first two scores. The Wolfpack's third score was set up by a high snap from center on a BG punt.

Nevada finally took the lead with 12:41 left in the game and looked to possibly put the game away with a field goal with 7:13 left, ending their run of 31 unanswered points.

Bowling Green then moved to the Nevada six-yard line before turning the ball over on downs. After holding the Wolfpack to one first down, Nevada punter Steve Lester had the center snap go through his hands setting up the Falcons at the Wolfpack 15-yard line with 1:45 remaining.

A 12-yard Erik White to Mark Szlachcic connection on first down put the Falcons on the three-yard line. After two runs and a pass did not net any yardage, White found Dave Hankins alone in the back of the end zone on fourth down with 22 seconds left. Placekicker Brian Leaver made the PAT for the winning points and BG's second consecutive bowl win.

Northwestern took away Bowling Green's running game. So Josh Harris beat the Wildcats through the air. Harris passed for 386 yards and three touchdowns to lead Bowling Green to a 28-24 victory over Northwestern in the Motor City Bowl. It was the first postseason meeting ever between schools from the MAC and Big Ten.

Bowling Green quarterback Josh Harris (left) was named co-MVP of the 2003 Motor City Bowl after leading the Falcons to a 28-24 comeback win over Northwestern, giving the MAC its first-ever postseason win over a Big Ten foe. Harris set a Motor City Bowl record by completing 38-of-50 passes for 386 yards and three TDs. Harris finished his career with 7,503 yards passing, 2,473 yards rushing and 104 TDs responsible for. Falcon head coach Gregg Brandon (right) led all NCAA IA first-year head coaches in victories by leading the Falcons to an 11-3 record.

BGSU HISTORY • BOWL GAMES

Bowling Green took the lead for good on Harris' 3-yard touchdown pass to Cole Magner with 4:06 left. Harris, who also ran for a TD, set a Motor City Bowl and BGSU record for completions with 38 in 50 attempts. It also marked the third fourth-quarter rally for BGSU against a Big Ten squad (Northwestern in 2001 and Purdue in 2003). Magner also set a game record for catches, finishing with 12 for 97 yards and two touchdowns.

Jason Wright ran for 237 yards on 21 carries and finished with 336 all-purpose yards for Northwestern. He had a 77-yard TD run - the second-longest run in Motor City Bowl history - to give the Wildcats a 17-7 lead early in the third quarter and an 88-yard kickoff return early in the fourth to set up Noah Herron's 2-yard touchdown run that made it 24-21.

Bowling Green used two 80-yard scoring drives to take a 21-17 lead early in the fourth. Harris threw a 7-yard TD pass to Magner, and put the Falcons on top with an 11-yarder to Steve Sanders.

Northwestern opened the scoring on Herron's 40-yard fourth-down run in the first quarter, and made it 10-0 on Brian Huffman's 31-yard field goal. Bowling Green answered with a 67-yard drive, capped by Harris' 4-yard run.

Omar Jacobs went from Bowling Green's question mark to the Mid-American Conference's latest star quarterback. Jacobs capped a marvelous sophomore season by passing for 365 yards and five touchdowns to lead the Falcons to a 52-35 victory over Memphis in the GMAC Bowl.

The Falcons (9-3) turned a shootout into a blowout after leading 35-28 at halftime to win their fourth consecutive bowl game. Jacobs got them started with four first-half touchdown passes - two apiece to Charles Sharon and Steve Sanders helped carry them the rest of the way. Pope ran 28 times for 151 yards and a pair of 1-yard touchdowns. He also caught a 13-yard pass for the only score of the third quarter. The Tigers (8-4), playing in back-to-back bowl games for the first time, couldn't keep up with the nation's No. 4 offense, which totaled 558 total yards.

Jacobs, whose 41 touchdown passes led the nation and set a Mid-American Conference record, completed 26-of-44 passes with an interception to earn Most Valuable Player honors.

At halftime, the teams seemed poised to take aim at the 2001 GMAC Bowl, the highest scoring bowl game in history with 125 combined points for Marshall and East Carolina. The offenses stopped themselves early in the third quarter. Jacobs threw only his fourth interception of the season to give the Tigers the ball at Bowling Green's 41. Memphis

The Falcons enjoy the post-game celebration following their 52-35 victory over Memphis in the 2004 GMAC Bowl. Game MVP Omar Jacobs threw a bowl-record five TD tosses.

Hurricane Paul Smith and the nation's top-rated offense turned a little charity into a lot of history in the GMAC Bowl.

Smith had his NCAA-record 14th consecutive 300-yard passing game, and Tulsa converted four fumble recoveries into first-half touchdowns on the way to a 63-7 win over Bowling Green in the 2007 GMAC Bowl.

With all that help, the Golden Hurricane (10-4) ran up a 35-0 halftime lead and capped coach Todd Graham's first season by reaching 10 wins for the first time since 1991.

Smith passed for 312 yards and five touchdowns. He broke the record of 13 300-yard efforts in a row he shared with BYU's Ty Detmer, whose streak stretched over the 1989 and 1990 seasons.

He and Tarrion Adams joined Houston's David Klingler and Chuck Weatherspoon as the NCAA's only 5,000-yard passing and 1,000-yard rushing tandems.

Tulsa outgained Bowling Green (8-5) 562-229 in total yards.

Adams scored touchdowns running, passing and receiving before halftime and ran for 112 yards. Trae Johnson caught two scoring passes.

Bowling Green, which had won four consecutive bowl games, lost three fumbles in its own territory in the first quarter and never recovered.

Quarterback Tyler Sheehan was helped off the field with a left ankle injury with 24 seconds left in the first half and didn't return. Sheehan passed for 141 yards and ran for another 21.

Still throwing the ball despite the large lead late in the fourth quarter, the Golden Hurricanes became the first team in NCAA history to have a 5,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000-yard receivers. Smith came in needing 247 yards along with 45 yards receiving from Charles Clay, who reached the milestone with several catches midway through the fourth quarter and finished with 11 for 69 yards.

The Mid-American Conference had won five of six GMAC Bowls before the Falcons' fall.

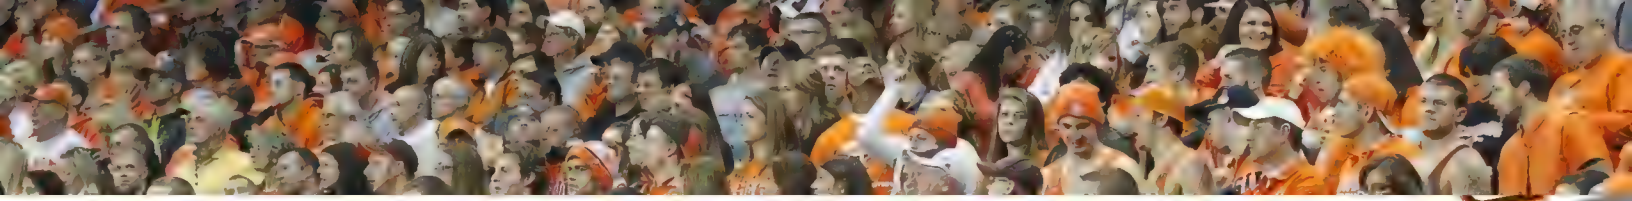

Down 42-0, Bowling Green got on the board when Roger Williams scored on a 78-yard kick return early in the third quarter for the Falcons' only points. It was the first kickoff return for a touchdown in the history of the GMAC Bowl.

Despite the loss the 2007 season was a very impressive one for the Orange and Brown, who finished the year with an 8-5 record, matching Central Michigan for the most overall wins in the conference.

The Falcons, who were picked to finish fifth in the East Division, finished MAC play with a 6-2 record, finishing in a three-way tie for tops among the East.

Roger Williams scores on a 78 yard kickoff return, the first-ever kickoff return for a touchdown in the history of the GMAC Bowl.

The Bowling Green State University football team got a 51-yard touchdown from Freddie Barnes with 32 seconds remaining to take a 42-35 lead but surrendered a late touchdown with four seconds to go, as well as a two-point conversion, to fall 43-42 to the Idaho Vandals in the 2009 Rody's Humanitarian Bowl in Boise, Idaho.

BGSU rallied back from a 28-14 and 35-28 deficits to lead with 32 seconds to go but the Vandals drove 66 yards on three plays, including a 50-yard strike to open the drive to get within one at 42-41. After a timeout the Vandals elected to go for two, converting in the back of the endzone for the winning score.

The Falcons opened the scoring with senior quarterback Tyler Sheehan hooking up with Biletnikoff finalist Freddie Barnes on a 35-yard touchdown. Sheehan would call Barnes' number 16 more times, finishing with a Humanitarian Bowl record 17 receptions for 219 yards (both Humanitarian Bowl records), while Sheehan completed 33-of-47 passes for 387 yards and four touchdowns.

Barnes would finish the season with 155 receptions, smashing the all-time NCAA mark of 142, held by Manny Hazzard (Houston) since 1989. For his efforts he was named BGSU's Rody's Humanitarian Bowl Most Valuable Player.

Following a Vandal touchdown junior Willie Geter scampered 59 yards for a score to spot the Orange and Brown a 14-7 lead at the end of one quarter. It was Geter's second longest run of the season.

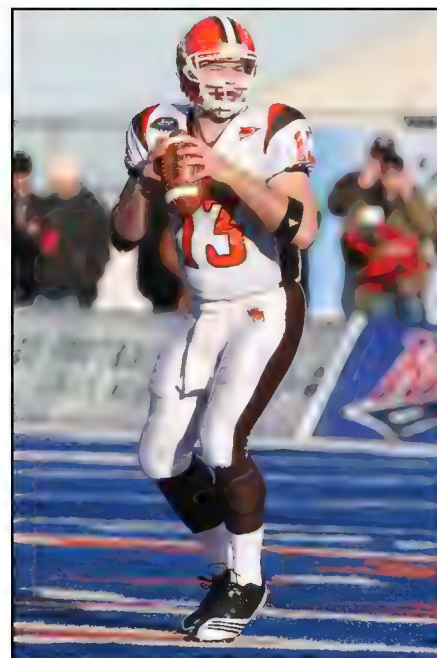

Neither team would get back on the scoreboard until Idaho's Nathan Enderle connected with wide receiver Eric Greenwood on a seven-yard fade route with 19 seconds remaining in the first half to finish the first half at 14 apiece.

Idaho started the second half off with a bang, scoring a pair of touchdowns in a four minute span to go up 28-14 with 5:30 minutes to go in the third quarter, a spot Bowling Green has seen before an answered. Much like the contest with Kent State and Buffalo, BGSU would have to find a way to rally from a double-digit deficit, a deficit they would erase in a hurry.

First, Sheehan connected with fellow classmate Jimmy Scheidler on a 15-yard touchdown with just over three minutes remaining in the third quarter and then found Barnes on an out-route at 12:15 in the fourth to knot the score at 28 apiece.

The Vandals would answer back with a 74-yard drive to once again take the lead, this time, 35-28 with 8:32 to go in the game.

A two-yard Geter touchdown, his second of the game, pushed the score to 35-35 and following a stop by the BGSU defense Sheehan and the Falcons marched 80 yards to take a 42-35 lead with 32 seconds remaining before the final winning drive by Idaho.

San Jose State took advantage of a key turnover late in the fourth quarter to secure a 29-20 win over Bowling Green in the 2012 Military Bowl Thursday. The Falcon defense was stellar again on Thursday afternoon, holding the Spartans to -15 yards rushing on the afternoon. With the loss, the Falcons finish the season at 8-5.

San Jose State jumped out to a 7-0 lead with a four play, 79 yard drive, capped off with a 33 yard touchdown pass from David Fales. The Falcon defense made the Spartans one-dimensional all game, as the Spartan rushing attack was ineffective.

The Falcons got on the board with a 28 yard field from Tyler Tate with 3:57 left to play in the first quarter.

After a Gabe Martin blocked punt, the Falcons would get to within one point with another field goal from Tate, this time from 33 yards out.

San Jose State would add a field goal before the half to take a 10-6 lead into the lockerroom.

After the Falcons punted to begin the second half, the defense would come up with a big play to help the struggling offense out. Charlie Walker's rush off the edge produced a huge hit on quarterback David Fales, causing him to fumble. All-American Chris Jones was there to pick it up and return it 21 yards to the San Jose State eight yard line.

On the very next play, Anthon Samuel would take a handoff and scamper into the endzone for the touchdown and a 13-10 Falcon lead.

After a three-and-out late in the third quarter, Brian Schmiedebusch's punt would be blocked by San Jose State's special teams. The ball would carry through the end zone for a safety. At that time, the Falcons still led 13-12.

On the very next drive, San Jose State would take the lead on an 18 yard pass from Fales to Chandler Jones.

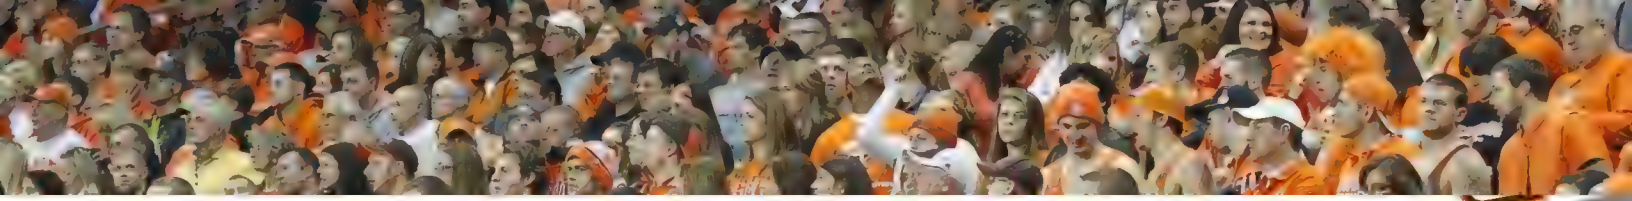

The Falcons would come right back, as John Pettigrew would find a seam and go 37 yards on a handoff down to the San Jose State one yard line. On the very next play, Pettigrew would punch it in, giving the Falcons another lead at 20-19.

With 4:43 left to play in the game, San Jose State's Austin Lopez would knock home a field goal for a two point Spartan lead.

On the next drive, Matt Schilz was hit from behind and would fumble. San Jose State was there to pounce on it.

The Spartans would convert for a touchdown following that turnover, and the Falcons could not crack the scoreboard again.

Chris Blewitt's field goal with 1:17 remaining gave the University of Pittsburgh a 30-27 win over the Bowling Green State University football team Thursday night (Dec. 26), in the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl at Ford Field in Detroit, Mich.

The win gives the Panthers a final record of 7-6, while the Falcons end the 2013 season with a record of 10-4.

Pitt freshman James Conner ran for 229 yards and a touchdown, while the Panthers' Tyler Boyd had 173 receiving yards and returned a punt 54 yards for a score.

The Panthers had 487 yards of total offense to the Falcons' 289. BGSU quarterback Matt Johnson threw for 272 yards and a pair of scores, completing 20 of 32 passes on the night. For Pitt, Tom Savage was 8-of-13 for 124 yards before leaving the game due to injury late in the first half. Chad Voytik was 5-of-9 for 108 yards in relief.

Pitt had a total of seven quarterback sacks in the game.

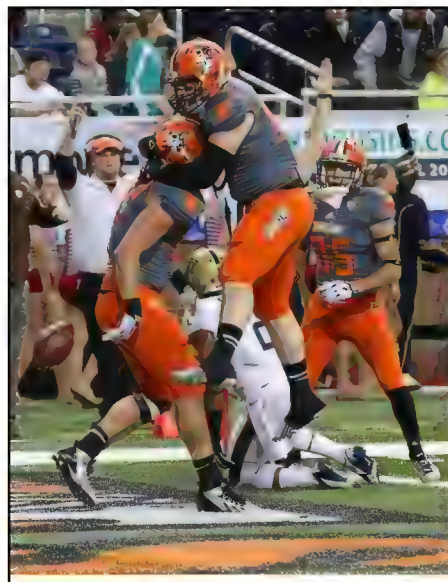

The Pitt offense went three and out on each of the first two drives. The BGSU defense forced Pitt into three plays of negative yardage and one incomplete pass in those first two drives. On third down of each drive, Pitt picked up positive yardage, but not enough for the first down in either case.

Meanwhile, the Falcons were forced to punt on their opening drive. Matt Johnson's 16-yard pass to Heath Jackson on third down was not enough to overcome a sack earlier in the possession, which ended with a 60-yard punt by Brian Schmiedebusch. But, on BG's second drive, Johnson found Shaun Joplin for gains of 18 and 17 yards, respectively, on back-to-back plays. Joplin led the BG receivers with six catches and 86 yards vs. the Panthers. The Falcons got into the red zone before the drive stalled, and Tyler Tate kicked a 28-yard field goal to give the Brown and Orange the early lead.

Trailing by a touchdown at halftime, BGSU drew even at the start of the second half, as BooBoo Gates returned the opening kickoff 94 yards for a score. Tate's PAT tied the game with only 11 seconds elapsed.

That Gates return tied the school record for longest kickoff return in history, matching Leon Weathersby's 94-yard return in a 1997 game at Perry Stadium.

The next drive, however, saw the Panthers kick what proved to be the winning field goal. On the second play of that drive, Voytik rolled out and gained 19 yards, giving Pitt a first down at midfield. Conner gained 20 yards on the following play. Voytik handed the ball to Conner on each of the next three plays, gaining a total of nine yards. On that third-down play, Conner was stopped for no gain, but on fourth down, Blewitt's 39-yard kick was good.

DOYT L. PERRY

1988 College Football Hall of Fame Inductee

The year 1988 will be fondly remembered by many who are associated with the football program at BGSU. That year Doyt L. Perry, a former player, coach and administrator was recognized by the National Football Foundation with its top honor, induction into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Perry traveled to New York in December of 1988 for the Foundation's Hall of Fame dinner and was officially enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in June, 1989, in ceremonies held at Kings Island, Ohio.

Perry's association with BGSU dates back to the 1920s when he lettered nine times in three sports (football, basketball and baseball). The Croton, Ohio native received his degree in 1932. He began coaching on the high school level before becoming an assistant at Ohio State in 1951.

Perry returned to his alma mater in 1955, leading the football program to a 77-11-5 (.855) record over the next 11 years. His teams won five Mid-American Conference titles and one national college division championship in 1959. Perry's winning percentage ranks fifth on the all-time NCAA list.

Perry, who retired from coaching in 1964 to become BGSU's athletic director, developed such outstanding coaches as Bill Mallory, Don Nehlen, Larry Smith, and the late Dave McClain. Many more of Perry's former assistants and players have gone on to enjoy success in the coaching profession.

Perry passed away in February of 1992. At his memorial service former Michigan coach Bo Schembechler, an assistant on Perry's 1955 staff, said, "I don't believe I can name a coach, anywhere, anytime, anyhow, who did it better than Doyt Perry."

A documentary on Perry's career was released in May of 1998. It was produced by WBGU-TV.

SPIRIT & TRADITION

WHY ORANGE AND BROWN?

Orange and brown have been the school colors at Bowling Green State University since 1914, the first year of classes. Legend has it that Leon Winslow, an industrial arts faculty member, got the idea from watching a women's hat on a bus to nearby Toledo, Ohio. He liked the brown and orange color combination. So, too, did former Cleveland Browns' head coach Paul Brown. Following a trip to BGSU in the 1940s, Brown used the colors for his All-America Conference team.

ALMA MATER

Alma Mater hear us,
As we praise thy name
Make us worthy sons and daughters
Adding to thy fame.

Time will treat you kindly
Years from now you'll be
Ever dearer in our hearts,
Our University.

From your halls of ivy
To the campus scene,
Chimes ring out with gladness
From our dear Bowling Green.

When all is just a mem'ry
Of the by-gone days,
Hear our hymn dear Alma Mater
As thy name we praise.

FIGHT SONG

Forward Falcons, Forward Falcons
Fight for victory,
Show your spirit, make them fear it
Fight for 'ol Bee Gee.

Forward Falcons, Forward Falcons
Make the contest keen,
Shout out the fame of our mighty name
And win for Bowling Green!

AY ZIGGY ZOOMBA

Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zoomba
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Ze
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zoomba
Ay Ziggy Zoomba Zoomba Zi
Roll along you BG warriors
Roll along and win for BGSU

Ay Ziggy Zoomba is Bowling Green's unofficial fight song. Gil Fox, an Air Force bombardier in World War II stationed in Italy, brought a loose translation of a Zulu war chant back with him, and since its introduction in 1946 to a campus spirit assembly, it has kept its place in BGSU history. The Falcon football team traditionally sings "Ay Ziggy Zoomba" after each victory.

SPIRIT & TRADITION

Retired Jersey

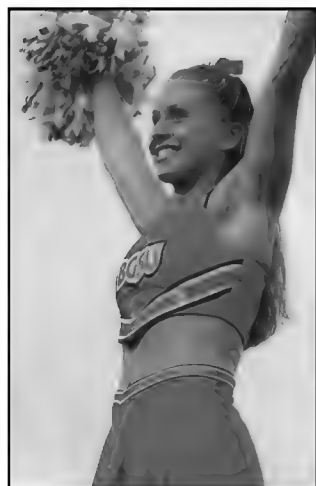

The only football jersey ever retired at Bowling Green is #29. It was worn by Paul Miles from 1971-73. Miles rushed for 3,239 yards and 25 touchdowns in his career and was a three-time first team All-MAC selection. He was just the third back in NCAA history to rush for 1,000 or more yards in three consecutive seasons.

Frieda & Freddie Falcon

Frieda and Freddie Falcon are the official mascots of the Bowling Green Falcons. Together with the BGSU cheerleaders, Frieda and Freddie boost spirit at intercollegiate athletic events. Tryouts are held each spring, and winners remain anonymous to the student body until each is "beheaded" at the last home basketball and hockey game. The Freddie Falcon tradition began in 1950 while Frieda Falcon was added for the 1979-80 athletic year.

Why The Falcons?

The 2012-2013 athletic year marks the 85th anniversary of Bowling Green's nickname, Falcons. Before 1927, BG teams were called the Normals or Teachers. Ivan Lake '23 suggested the nickname after reading an article on falconry. Lake, managing editor and sports editor of the Sentinel Tribune in Bowling Green at the time, proposed the name change because it fit headline space and because falcons were "the most powerful bird for their size and often attacked birds two or three times their size."

PEACE PIPE AWARD

The Peace Pipe was a traveling award that went to the winner of the annual gridiron battle between Bowling Green and Toledo. The Peace Pipe tradition actually began on the basketball court during the 1947-48 season. At that time, the teams exchanged a six-foot long wooden peace pipe. The original basketball Peace Pipe disappeared, so, in 1980, the Peace Pipe was reinstated for football with former UT football player Frank Kralik creating the present trophy. Today's Peace Pipe is a smaller version of the original pipe, resting atop a trophy. The Peace Pipe was eliminated prior to the 2011 season and replaced by the "Battle of I-75" Trophy.

ANNIVERSARY AWARD

The Anniversary Award is a traveling award that goes to the winner of the football game between Bowling Green and Kent State. Established in 1985 by the respective alumni departments at BGSU and KSU, the Anniversary Award commemorates the founding of BGSU and KSU in the year 1910.

DOYT L. PERRY STADIUM

Doyt L. Perry Stadium has added lights, a new scoreboard, FieldTurf, some chairback seating and the Sebo Athletic Center since 2001

Doyt L. Perry Stadium, with its 24,000 seating capacity, is celebrating its 49th year as the home of Bowling Green State University football. In 2001 permanent lighting was installed at the venue and home attendance doubled. In 2007 FieldTurf and the Sebo Athletic Center were added and in 2012 a high definition video board in the south endzone was installed.

Built in 1966 for approximately $3 million as a replacement for the 43-year-old University Stadium, Perry Stadium had a capacity of 23,272 until bleacher seats were installed in both end zones in 1982 (Those bleachers have been removed, to give way for the Sebo Athletic Center, giving BGSU the 24,000 current capacity). One of the largest and most attractive athletic facilities in the Mid-American Conference, Perry Stadium set the conference record for single-game attendance.

On Oct. 8, 1983, a huge crowd of 33,527 packed into Perry Stadium for the annual Northwest Ohio rivalry between Bowling Green and Toledo, establishing a school and MAC record for single-game attendance. The Falcons went on to set a season record, breaking the six-digit figure for five games with a total draw of 100,021. It marked the first time in history that Bowling Green averaged more than 20,000 fans for five home football games.

That figure was topped in 1985, when Bowling Green posted a perfect record (11-0) in the regular season and clinched the MAC Championship by shutting out Toledo at Perry Stadium in November. More than 28,000 fans turned out that day, raising Bowling Green's season attendance to an average of 22,422. In 1994, BG fans bettered the mark of 1985 as 114,802 fans, an average of 22,960, attended the five home games.

In 2003, Falcon faithful attended sellout games against Northern Illinois and Toledo as ESPN broadcast three games live from the facility and brought its weekly college football show, College Gameday, to Bowling Green. That year, BGSU averaged more than 21,000 per home game.

Perry Stadium is more than just a football facility. The east side of the stadium includes locker rooms, equipment rooms, and some Athletic Department offices. The west side is the home of the BGSU Golf Training Center, filled with a 1,200 square foot putting green, locker rooms and hitting bays, as well as offices for both men's and women's soccer.

Sitting atop the press box on the west side of the stadium is the plush Stadium Club. The Stadium Club's 106 theatre-type seats provide loyal BGSU fans with the best view of the game. The President's Box, located at the top of the east side of the stadium, provides luxury seating for the University President and her guests, along with other supporters of Falcon football.

The construction of elevators on both sides of the stadium, completed in early 1998, has made the stadium more accessible for all fans. Renovations to all boxes on both sides and the stadium club have taken place over the last few years making for a more "fan-friendly" atmosphere. Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Stadium, defeating Dayton, 13-0, on Oct. 1, 1966. Since that time, the Falcons have won over 65 percent of their home games, compiling a 155-81-6 record in the 242 games played at Perry Stadium.

In the event that a BGSU player does not hold a record, the top Falcon performance is also listed.

Perry Stadium is named in honor of the man who led Bowling Green to a 77-11-5 record in his 10 years as the head coach of the Falcons. Doyt L. Perry was simply one of the greatest football coaches of his day. His .855 winning percentage over 10 seasons in the 1950s and 1960s remains one of the highest in football history. In fact, Perry is fifth all-time behind Bob Reade (Augustana), Knute Rockne (Notre Dame), Frank Leahy (Notre Dame), and Larry Kehres (Mount Union) in winning percentage among coaches with at least 10 years of service on the collegiate level. Perry served as the BGSU athletic director for seven years (1965-71) after stepping down as football coach.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS CHRIS KINGSTON

D. Christopher Kingston was named the 13th full-time Athletics Director at Bowling Green State University on June 9, 2013. Prior to accepting the Athletics Director role at BGSU, Kingston spent more than two years at North Carolina State University, first as the Senior Associate Director of Athletics before being elevated to the role of Executive Senior Associate Director of Athletics.

"We are very excited that Chris is joining the Falcon family," said Mary Ellen Mazey, president of BGSU. "BGSU has a long and fine tradition of supporting our student-athletes, and I'm looking forward to working with Chris to expand that tradition, and further engage the Bowling Green community, the region and the state."

At NC State, Kingston was directly responsible for the day-to-day operations of the football and men's basketball programs. Additionally, he oversaw external initiatives, athletic branding and multimedia rights. He also supervised student services and media relations, and was integral in the development of the athletic department's first leadership academy. Kingston serves as the athletics department's liaison to the Wolfpack Club and is a member of the Intercollegiate Athletics Cabinet.

"I am overwhelmed by the honor and privilege of serving as the director of athletics at Bowling Green State University," Kingston said. "I want to thank President Mazey and the search committee for their confidence in me and I am humbled by the responsibility of leading the student-athletes, coaches and staff at Bowling Green. My family and I are excited about the opportunities ahead as we join the Falcon family."

Prior to his time at NC State, Kingston spent four years as the Associate Director of Athletics for Operations and then the Special Assistant to the Director of Athletics/Director of Annual Giving for the U.S. Military Academy. His most recent position at West Point included handling the daily operations of the A-Club and directing the Army Athletic Association's annual fund-raising campaign. He also worked with each of the department's 25 Division I intercollegiate teams with regards to their specific fund-raising accounts.

In that capacity, Kingston organized the Athletic Director's Tailgate and the home and away football donor events. He helped integrate premium courtside and rinkside seating at basketball and hockey, respectively. With direct oversight of the ticket office, he led the transition of a multiyear agreement with Paciolan as the Athletic Association began to streamline customer service with digital ticketing. Kingston was part of the association's external operations team, which helped to synchronize the ticket office, A-Club and marketing efforts.

Other day-to-day business for Kingston included sport supervision for the golf, gymnastics, men's soccer and rifle teams. During his time at West Point, he served as a member of the NCAA Rifle Committee.

Kingston is a 2010 graduate of the Executive Program of the Sports Management Institute and attended instruction at the University of Michigan's Ross School of Business and the University of Texas's McCombs School of Business. He also attended the Division 1A Athletic Director's Institute in 2010, a "by invitation only" gathering of the most talented intercollegiate professionals.

Kingston was instrumental in several recent coaching hires at the Army Athletic Association. He planned, organized and executed searches for head football, men's basketball, men's soccer and men's golf coaches. Kingston was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army's Military Intelligence Corps upon graduation from the University of Central Florida in May 1994. He retired from the U.S. Army in September 2009.

Kingston replaced Greg Christopher, who served as the Athletics Director at Bowling Green from 2006 until resigning in May to take over the Athletics Director position at Xavier University. At BGSU, Kingston took over an athletics department on the rise within the Mid-American Conference, the Western Collegiate Hockey Association and nationally. Of the department's 18 sports, 14 improved or finished in the same place in the conference standings in 2013-14 as a year earlier. Seven finished in the top half of the league standings, the most since 2008-09, and two teams (Volleyball and Baseball) won the MAC Tournament, advancing to the NCAA Tournament.

The volleyball team became the first BGSU program since the women's basketball team in 2007 to win an NCAA Tournament game. Four teams (Volleyball, Baseball, Football and Outdoor Track and Field) earned points in the Learfield Sports Director's Cup standings and the Falcons should end the year among the top 150 in the country in that ranking. BGSU's student-athletes have earned more all-conference, scholar-athlete and player of the week awards than at any time in the past four years. Two student-athletes, football's Chris Jones and track and field's Brooke Pleger, were named first team All-Americans.

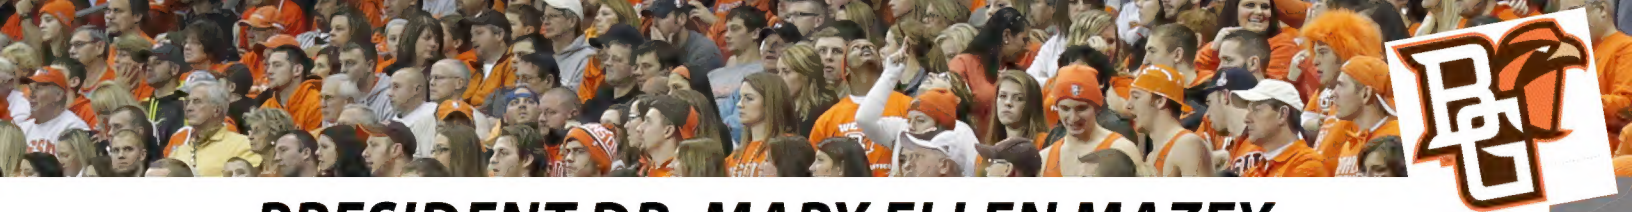

Academically, Bowling Green's student-athletes consistently combine to earn a department grade point average over 3.0. All 18 BGSU teams have Annual Progress Rates (APR) well above the minimum qualifications to stay clear of sanctions and two teams, women's golf and tennis, were publically recognized for having an APR among the top 10 percent in the country. BGSU is one of 61 NCAA Division I schools that have earned public recognition in each of the eight years of the APR program. The student-athletes' academic success is considered one of the strong points in the department.

From a facility standpoint, the Stroh Center, home of the Bowling Green men's and women's basketball and volleyball programs, is less than two years ago. In that time, major renovations have been completed to the BG Ice Arena, lights have been installed at Cochrane Soccer Field, a new video board has been installed at Doyt Perry Stadium and a new swimming scoreboard is in place. Plans have also been announced for lights at Meserve Softball Field.

BGSU is a comprehensive university recognized by U.S. News and World Report as a top tier institution. Our nearly 20,000 students come from all 50 states, as well as 70 other countries.

In addition to earning his bachelor's degree from the University of Central Florida, Kingston got his master's degree in leadership development and educational counseling from Long Island University prior to his initial assignment to West Point.

Kingston and his wife, Stephanie, a native of Whiteville, N.C., have four children: Lakin, Christopher Jr., Luke, and Mackenzie.
